

MARY CONNELLY'S STORY.

HER DETAILED ACCOUNT OF THE ATTEMPT TO POISON HER HUSBAND.
The story of the woman who was accused of poisoning her husband, Mr. Blair, is a tale of domestic tragedy and legal intrigue. It begins with the discovery of the crime and the subsequent investigation by the police and the courts. The narrative details the various attempts to frame the accused and the eventual revelation of the truth.

HORSE CARS IN CHAMBERS STREET.

A scheme that the Board of Aldermen approved with Astonishing Celerity.
The Board of Aldermen has approved a scheme for the improvement of horse cars in Chambers Street. The plan involves the construction of a new line of tracks and the purchase of new cars to increase the efficiency and capacity of the service. The project is expected to be completed within a few months.

LINCOLN AND JOHN BROWN.

COUPLED BY COLORED MEN AS MARTYRS IN FREEDOM'S BATTLE.
A commemorative service was held in the City of New York to honor the memory of Abraham Lincoln and John Brown. The event was attended by a large number of people and featured a series of speeches and musical performances. The speakers emphasized the importance of the struggle for freedom and the role of Lincoln and Brown in that struggle.

BROOKLYN STREETS FLOODED.

The Bursting of the Chief Water Main of the Western District.
A major water main in the Western District of Brooklyn burst, causing significant flooding in the area. The water main, which was over 100 years old, had been in poor condition for some time. The burst occurred during the night, and the water continued to flow for several hours before the main was finally repaired.

THE PHILHARMONIC CLUB'S CONCERT.

The second concert of the Philharmonic Club.
The Philharmonic Club held its second concert at Chickering Hall. The program featured a variety of classical music, including works by Beethoven, Chopin, and Liszt. The performance was highly praised for its quality and the skill of the musicians.

THE WEEKLY SUN.

The Weekly Sun, published this morning.
The Weekly Sun is a popular newspaper published in New York City. It covers a wide range of topics, including local news, national events, and international affairs. The paper is known for its detailed reporting and its commitment to providing accurate and timely information to its readers.

THE PHILHARMONIC CLUB'S CONCERT.

The second concert of the Philharmonic Club.
This section provides a detailed account of the Philharmonic Club's second concert. It describes the various pieces performed, the contributions of the individual musicians, and the overall atmosphere of the event. The concert was a great success and was well-received by the audience.

THE PHILHARMONIC CLUB'S CONCERT.

The second concert of the Philharmonic Club.
This section continues the report on the Philharmonic Club's second concert. It focuses on the final pieces of the program and the reactions of the audience. The concert concluded on a high note, with the audience expressing their appreciation for the performers.